ROUTES DU BONHEUR "African Triangle" - Cape Town, Kruger National Park, Victoria Falls

What if the traveler became a surveyor? Using a compass and a ruler, he would draw a triangle formed by the mythical places of southern Africa. Victoria Falls would appear at the top while the base would be composed of the Cape of Good Hope and the Kruger National Park. A modern adventurer would travel in the footsteps of the great explorer David Livingstone, navigating the Zambezi, he would discover the pastel colored facades of Bo-Kaap in Cape Town, the souvenir of three-masts off the Cape, and many large mammals, the princes of the savannah ...

Royal Chundu – Luxury Zambezi Lodges

Lodge and restaurant on a river. Upstream from the Victoria Falls, on the banks of the powerful Zambezi River, you find paradise on earth. Royal Chundu, with its two magnificent lodges in the middle of the bush far from the madding crowd, is the place to enjoy peace and quiet in what remains as an untamed corner of the earth. The River Lodge is on the riverbank while the Island Lodge is located on an island, both offering spacious suites with a colonial décor reminiscent of the splendour of the times of the early explorers. Returning from their excursions, guests can sample divine spa treatments with natural African ingredients or enjoy Zambian cuisine, watching stars light up the sky over the river.
