

ROUTES DU BONHEUR Family paradises in the South of France

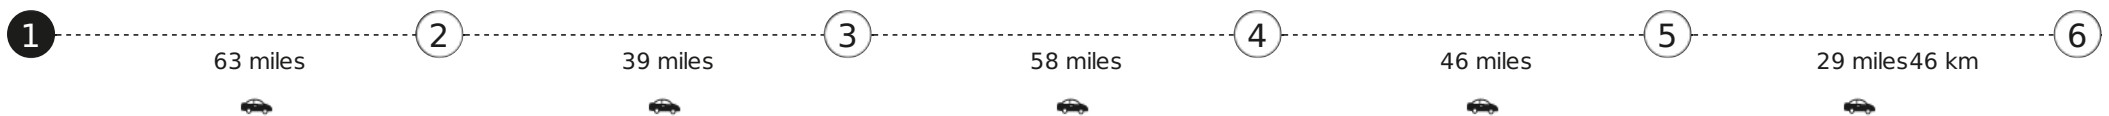

The south of France is ideal for family discoveries! From underwater trails, jazz concerts and regattas, to horseback rides, zoo visits and ochre mines, the experiences to be shared with children here seem as varied as they are endless. The pleasures of the Mediterranean extend throughout the magnificent landscapes of Provence. You'll go from a cultural visit to an outdoor activity. Under the Mediterranean sun, in a Provençal atmosphere, some people educate themselves or stroll, while others swim, have fun, relax, or strut about depending on their mood of the day...

1 CAP D'ANTIBES — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Cap d'Antibes Beach Hotel

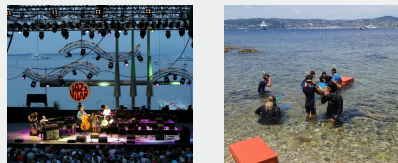

Hotel and restaurant on the seafont. Halfway between Nice and Cannes, in a setting where the Mediterranean takes centre stage, the Cap d'Antibes Beach Hotel is a contemporary architectural jewel. Its minimalist lines are in perfect harmony with the lush Mediterranean vegetation, with the charm and freshness of a garden by the sea, a fine private sandy beach facing the Lérins Islands, and a delightful infinity pool. The original décor of the rooms and suites transports guests on a sensory voyage. The enchantment continues in the restaurant Les Pêcheurs, which looks out onto the sea and offers a feast for the palate as well as the eyes, with a view of the Esterel massif in the distance. The chef offers high-flying, delicate and refined cuisine, made with seasonal products, from local producers, with whom he works hand in hand.

2 LA CROIX VALMER — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Château de Valmer

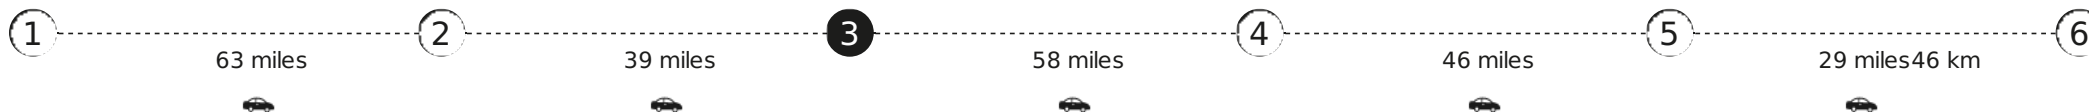

Hotel and restaurant in the country. Nestled in a six-hectare estate, only 300 m from the sea and surrounded by organic vineyards and Provençal countryside, Château de Valmer is a former family guest house which has, over time, been converted into a luxury hotel. Owners of the property since 1946, the Rocchietta-Montloin family has spent a lifetime cultivating the art of hospitality. Guests can enjoy chic and cosy rooms, tree houses, private residences, and a Michelin-starred gourmet restaurant whose cuisine is inspired by the estate's own organically grown produce. An invitation to relax and unwind, guests can take a path lined with majestic palm trees to bask on a private beach facing the Îles d'Hyères or pamper themselves in the large heated outdoor swimming pool and splendid spa that opens out to the park.

Weekly closing :

Main Restaurant: lunch, Monday evening, Tuesday evening. "Le Jardin": dîners.

4 LE CASTELLET — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Hôtel & Spa du Castellet

Restaurant and hotel in a park. On the edge of a forest of pine trees overlooking the Mediterranean Sea, the Hôtel du Castellet is one of the region’s most charming properties. Guest rooms are painted in hues of honey, lavender and grape and there are plenty of sun-drenched terraces. For absolute relaxation there is the pool, golf course and spa. When night falls, the gazebos are illuminated, to highlight the beauty of the grounds.

5 LE PUY-SAINTE-RÉPARADE — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Château de Fonscolombe

Hotel and restaurant in a park. Once home to a large family of Provençal humanists, Château de Fonscolombe has preserved its soul. Its salons of Genoa leather and Chinese wallpaper still resonate with their lively character. The park, with paths lined by majestic trees, is the fantastic oeuvre of a lineage of botanists. As for the restaurant La Table de l'Orangerie, it too has embraced the chic, rustic and Provençal charm of the estate. Soft and subdued in winter, it takes its summer quarters in the shade of a large bald cypress. Chef Marc Fontanne breathes his creativity into a modern cuisine with original Provençal flavors in harmony with the richness of the terroir.

6 GARGAS — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Coquillade Provence

Hotel and restaurant in a vineyard. Coquillade Provence hotel overlooks something of a living painting—a tableau of vineyards, olive trees and lavender fields amid the gentle hills of the Luberon. This charming Provencal hamlet, with its ochre facades, tiled rooftops and panoramic views of Mont Ventoux, perfectly embodies the soul of the region. Guest rooms—some decorated in an authentic style, others in a more contemporary way—blend in wonderfully with this green setting. In the kitchen, the chef showcases produce from his own vegetable garden alongside local products at Avelan restaurant and its two chef’s tables. His colorful plates reflect the region, which is easy to explore. Several cycle tracks are accessible from the hotel, allowing you to crisscross the lavender fields to the sound of cicadas. Back at the property, its azure swimming pool and 21,500 square foot spa promise intense relaxation, making every stay an enchanting interlude.
