

ROUTES DU BONHEUR Vineyards under the Mediterranean sun

For oenologists, the South of France is a journey of many bouquets and personalities. Like the landscape and the climate, the vineyards have very different profiles. Between Languedoc, the Côtes du Rhône and the wines of Provence, the appellations, terroirs and grape varieties shape wines that are as magnificently full-bodied as they are famous. On this trip, each of the Relais & Châteaux properties has its own vineyards. You'll progress through Grenache and Syrah, Viognier and Chardonnay. As you travel between the vineyards, and from wine cellar to wine cellar, you'll discover the history behind these estates, which enjoy a close familiarity the Mediterranean Sea...

2 LES BAUX DE PROVENCE — 2 NIGHTS

( 1 property available )

Baumanière Hôtel & Spa

Restaurant and hotel in the country. As a result of the merger of La Cabro d’Or and L’Oustau de Baumanière, Baumanière has become the epitome of Mediterranean art of living in a magical place. Appreciated by personalities from the political and the media world, this domain was founded by Raymond Thuillier, the "historical monument" of French gastronomy according to Gault et Millau. In 1969, Jean-André Charial took over from his grandfather as the head Chef, a position he held with maestria until today. This respected Chef is now no longer in the kitchens but managing the domaine. Baumanière remains a unique place, nestled in the Baux-de-Provence rocky outcrops. It encompasses five buildings surrounded by Mediterranean gardens: the L’Oustau, the historical main house, La Maison de Famille, a Provençal farmhouse, the 18th-century manor, and finally Carita and Flora, two country abodes. There are also two gourmet restaurants, the Oustau de Baumanière—an institution where you can appreciate the refined, subtle, and creative cuisine of the chef—and La Cabro d’Or, a Provençal restaurant. The estate also has a spa, three outdoor pools, and a tennis court.

Weekly closing :

“L’Oustau de Baumanière“: closed Wednesday and Thursday all year round.

“La Cabro d’Or“: closed from October to May on Mondays and Tuesdays.

4 LAURIS — 1 NIGHT

( 1 property available )

Domaine de Fontenille

Hotel and restaurant in the country. In the heart of the Luberon Regional Nature Park, stop and enjoy a break at Domaine de Fontenille. Worthy of a novel by Giono or Pagnol, this mansion wrapped in cedars and century-old olive trees is a celebration of the charm and magnetism of the Provençal countryside, the perfect setting to experience French art de vivre. Elegantly combining period details and craftsmanship, the property's decor draws inspiration as much from family homes full of keepsakes as from the contemporary art centre in its former cellar — original works adorn the nineteen rooms and suites overlooking the park, which include an old wash house converted into a romantic little den. Le Champ des Lunes, the Michelin-starred restaurant of chef Michel Marini, adds to the magic of this place, as do the spa and the centuries-old vineyard and kitchen garden that are open to the public.

Château de Fonscolombe

Hotel and restaurant in a park. Once home to a large family of Provençal humanists, Château de Fonscolombe has preserved its soul. Its salons of Genoa leather and Chinese wallpaper still resonate with their lively character. The park, with paths lined by majestic trees, is the fantastic oeuvre of a lineage of botanists. As for the restaurant La Table de l'Orangerie, it too has embraced the chic, rustic and Provençal charm of the estate. Soft and subdued in winter, it takes its summer quarters in the shade of a large bald cypress. Chef Marc Fontanne breathes his creativity into a modern cuisine with original Provençal flavors in harmony with the richness of the terroir.
