ASK THE SOMMELIER — DARRYL CHAN

A Taste of New York

François Simon - I would like to have a cocktail to understand New York. You see? To be much more in the town.

Darryl Chan – OK, well that depends, old New York or new New York? Old New York, of course I'd have to say the Manhattan – it's a classic for a reason. New New York, with the cocktail scene... Us bartenders love nothing better than a really well-made daiquiri.
