ROUTES DU BONHEUR A journey into the memory of America: the 250th anniversary of the Revolutionary War

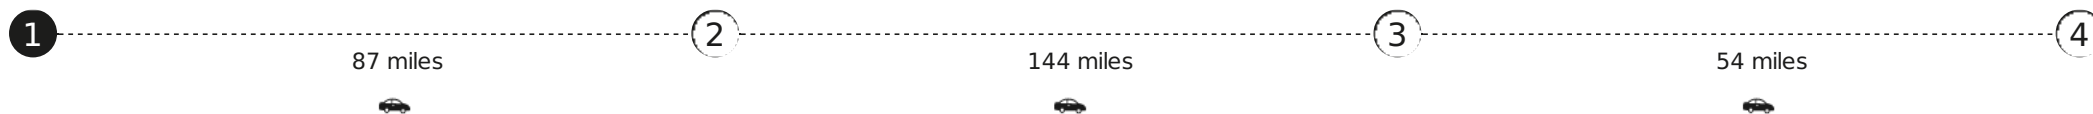

Follow in the footsteps of America's founding fathers! This Route du Bonheur lets you experience the 250th anniversary of the American Revolutionary War in the land where it all happened. From Lexington (MA), the site of a legendary battle where "the shot heard round the world" rang out, to Bedford (NY) by way of Newport (RI) and Morris (CT), this journey takes you into the earliest days of American history through a wide variety of festivities and events planned in 2025.

The Inn at Hastings Park

Hotel and restaurant in a village. The Inn at Hastings Park revives a colonial-era tradition of hospitality in Lexington, MA, a town considered to be the Birthplace of American Liberty. The Inn is comprised of three thoughtfully restored buildings with a design scheme that celebrates the historic character of the architecture, yet reinterprets it with modern flair. The property interiors feature artisan crafted furniture and design accents, most created by local designers. Each guest room is unique in its size and color scheme, with elements such as fireplaces and alcoves. The casually elegant restaurant serves inspired twists on New England cuisine using local, seasonal ingredients.

Weekly closing :

Restaurant: Sunday evening.

Castle Hill Inn

Hotel and restaurant on the seafront. First built in 1875 as a summer residence for a noted Harvard University marine biologist, this magnificent inn on an exclusive sixteen hectare peninsula bordering the ocean is a romantic haven. Whether you are in a cottage on Castle Hill's private beach, relaxing on the terrace or sitting at a table in the restaurant, you will be guaranteed panoramic views of the Atlantic and its many maritime activities including sailing, fishing and regattas. The menu features local and regional dishes, with a focus on organic ingredients paired with exceptional wines. Castle Hill is the perfect base from which to explore the beauty of Newport with its Gilded Age mansions, sandy beaches and rich history.

Winvian

Hotel and restaurant in the country. Nestled among the bucolic valleys and pristine lakes of the Litchfield Hills, Winvian is a unique hotel complex with 45 hectares of lush grounds bordered by centuries-old maple trees. A team of 15 architects designed the 18 original chalets and one suite, each with its own special design and atmosphere. Guests can choose to stay in a two-level treehouse 10 meters off the ground, a lighthouse in the middle of the forest, or perhaps a lodge built around a massive oak tree. In addition to the spa, hot air balloon rides, horseback riding, fly fishing, race car driving and other unforgettable experiences are available, all just two hours from the buzz of New York and Boston.
