ROUTES DU BONHEUR From historic Saxony to the Tyrolean border

From Dresden in eastern Germany, explore the rich heritage of the Saxons before weaving through the forests of Bavaria and continuing onward to the mountains of Tyrol. This Route du Bonheur itinerary takes you through a historic city, bucolic surrounds and the beautiful valleys that lead from Germany to Austria. In this land of traditions and picturesque charm, castles, churches, and other convents and cloisters classified as historical monuments harmoniously blend in with the landscape. This trip offers history buffs and outdoor enthusiasts alike numerous opportunities to enjoy the wide-open spaces (fishing, canoeing, hiking, etc.).

1 DRESDEN — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Bülow Palais

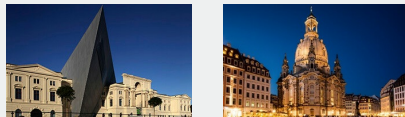

Hotel and restaurant in town. With the Semper Opera House, the Zwinger Palace and the Frauenkirche, Dresden is one of the most fascinating places to visit in Germany. Right in the centre of the Baroque district it is home to Bülow Palais. This residence, which is run with passion, offers a taste of paradise to stylish and demanding guests. It boasts an elegant atmosphere, with a touch of originality designed to appeal to those who love all that is truly personal. Relax and enjoy breakfast in the light-filled winter garden, savour light German cuisine at Bülow's Bistro, or meet up with your friends at the cigar lounge. The restaurant Le Carroussel offers one of the best cuisines in the region.

2 KAIKENRIED — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

Hotel Oswald

Hotel and restaurant in the country. Within the Bavarian forest, the Hotel Oswald, owned by the Oswald family, has preserved the spirit of its guest house origins. In the heart of a small village, it is the ideal base for enjoying the surrounding nature. Follow the hiking trails, take in the views of the nearby Bohemian forest, fish or canoe down the rivers, visit the oldest and most luxurious glass manufacturers in the world and then leave it to the Hotel Oswald to take care of the rest. Its wood-panelled rooms offer comfort and repose within the softness of a rustic setting draped in fur and satin. And its fine regional cuisine and Finnish-style spa promise delights and relaxation in all seasons — especially after a beautiful day of cross-country skiing in Arberland.

3 REIT IM WINKL — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

Gut Steinbach Hotel Chalets Spa

Hotel and restaurant in the mountains. Hotel Gut Steinbach is the masterpiece of the Graf von Moltke family, who, through their passion and care, has revived Bavarian art de vivre on an alpine plateau. At this estate in Chiemgau, a region bordering Austria, they have created an authentic haven of hospitality, designed to also be fully sustainable. At 700 m in altitude and set around a natural lake, the modern, charming and comfortable main building and chalets reflect the local architecture while also ensuring that the peace of the surrounding mountains is never disturbed. Across 50 hectares of meadow and forest, deer, pigs, poultry, goats and rabbits are raised to serve the rational needs of the Heimat restaurant, where chef Achim Hack showcases his farm-to-fork cuisine.
