

ROUTES DU BONHEUR Treasures of the French Riviera

"Azur" is one of the most beautiful and mysterious names in the French language. The word means "the sky or the air", and the coastline it evokes seems to indicate the meeting point between these two infinite spaces. From Menton to Lavandou, travelers will discover fine sandy beaches, rugged coves, seaside resorts, perched villages, and an infinite number of places dedicated to art in all its forms, but especially the art of living. Because along the shores of the Mediterranean, the spirit and myth of the French Riviera lives on...

Monte-Carlo Beach

Hotel and restaurant on the seafont. The Monte-Carlo Beach, a chic and timeless hotel built in the 1930s, has always been the epitome of glamour and "dolce vita". This palace, which has received celebrities from far and wide, has been renovated by architect designer India Mahdavi, and restored to all its former glory. Sea all around, and with an original terracotta façade and frescoes inspired by Matisse and Cocteau make it the perfect setting for an exquisite break. Located in an exceptional natural setting and sheltered by a pine forest, Monte-Carlo Beach offers a "Cabanas" service at the water's edge, an Olympic-size swimming pool, the Monte-Carlo Beach spa, as well as the committed Elsa restaurant, inspired by the nature.

Château de La Chèvre d'Or

Hotel and restaurant in a village. This château, built on the steep slopes of the French Riviera, offers breath-taking vistas of the Mediterranean and has plenty of relaxing activities in store: swimming in the pool, fragrant gardens or Indian massages. The charming rooms are all different. The great classics of French gastronomy as well as Mediterranean specialties can be savoured in one of the four restaurants of the Chèvre d'Or, where the pleasure derived from the fine cuisine is enhanced by the stunning views. After the meal, you can stroll through the cobblestone streets of the medieval cliff-side village overlooking the grandiose panorama of the sea.

Hôtel Impérial Garoupe

Hotel and restaurant on the seafont. EXCEPTIONAL CLOSURE UNTIL MARCH 31, 2025. A blue paradise, where the only sounds to trouble the peace come from the waters in La Garoupe bay which you can reach by a tiny private path. A fine villa stands in the midst of this unique landscape, with stone pines and ochre-coloured rocks, once an inspiration to Nicolas de Staël and Picasso, and is home to this characterful hotel. Tastefully appointed contemporary rooms, each with its private terrace or balcony, look out onto grounds planted with old olive trees and a pool and wellness area. The private beach, edged with succulents and bay trees, and the restaurant terrace in the shade of the mulberry trees provide the finishing touches to this cool oasis of peace and quiet.

Cap d'Antibes Beach Hotel

Hotel and restaurant on the seafont. Halfway between Nice and Cannes, in a setting where the Mediterranean takes centre stage, the Cap d'Antibes Beach Hotel is a contemporary architectural jewel. Its minimalist lines are in perfect harmony with the lush Mediterranean vegetation, with the charm and freshness of a garden by the sea, a fine private sandy beach facing the Lérins Islands, and a delightful infinity pool. The original décor of the rooms and suites transports guests on a sensory voyage. The enchantment continues in the restaurant Les Pêcheurs, which looks out onto the sea and offers a feast for the palate as well as the eyes, with a view of the Esterel massif in the distance. The chef offers high-flying, delicate and refined cuisine, made with seasonal products, from local producers, with whom he works hand in hand.

La Bastide de Saint-Tropez

Hotel and restaurant in a park. Just a few minutes from the beaches of Ramatuelle and the port of Saint-Tropez, La Bastide is an elegant Mediterranean home. Far from the summer crowds, this marvellous mansion with its four Provençal farmhouses invites you to unwind in the heart of its paradisiacal park full of exotic fragrances. In the restaurant L'Isoletta, the cuisine reflects the colours of Italy and the Mediterranean. On sunny days, enjoy the conviviality of a barbecue for lunch, while staying cool by the pool.
