Chalet Hotel Schönegg

Hotel and restaurant in the mountains. With the Matterhorn towering overhead, there is no doubt that Chalet Hotel Schönegg in Zermatt is truly located in the heart of the Swiss Alps. The hotel's design reinterprets traditional alpine style, giving a modern twist to natural materials such as wood and stone, and creating a feeling of harmony with the surrounding environment. From the panoramic terrace or guest-room balconies, the epic landscapes and colossal mountains make a spectacular backdrop. Surrounded by 250 miles (400 kilometres) of pine-lined paths and more than 180 miles (300 kilometres) of ski slopes, this is a paradise for hikers, bikers and skiers alike. After the day's exertions, discover the relaxed atmosphere of gourmet restaurant Saveurs, home to chef Reinhold Wrobel. His fine cuisine sensitively channels the local terroir, with dishes accompanied by wines from an impressive cellar of over 4000 bottles. Some wines have been produced in the local area for more than four generations by the Metry family, owners of the hotel.

Walliserhof Grand-Hotel & Spa

Hotel and restaurant in the mountains. Completely redesigned in 2019, Walliserhof Grand-Hotel & Spa brings together all the elements that have made well-being a truly unforgettable experience. The whiteness of Saas-Fee's peaks and the extraordinary purity of the air are a promise of the serene high-altitude retreat that awaits, enhanced all the more by the comfort and alpine chic of the hotel's 74 rooms. The vast swimming pool, invigorating jacuzzi, many saunas and steam bath, accompanied by tailor-made service, all set you on the path to a healthy life. This approach is also found in the restaurants which are committed to Slow Food — a deliberately measured practice that encompasses not only the ingredients and the way they are cooked but also the moments spent enjoying them.

Aïda Hotel & Spa

Hotel and restaurant in the mountains. Nestled in the prestigious ski resort of Crans-Montana in Switzerland is Aïda Hotel & Spa, a charming boutique hotel for adult only and whose warm and welcoming ambience blends beautifully with the natural scenery of mountains, lakes and fir trees that has made the area so popular. The decor of this hotel — which is owned by the Bestenheider family, who also owns the Hostellerie du Pas de L'Ours in Crans-Montana — combines traditional woodwork with contemporary furniture from leading designers and reused materials from local craftsmen. The 18 spacious rooms and suites each recall the authentic and intimate character of a mountain chalet. With large windows that open out to the immense south-facing terrace, all are perfect for taking in the fresh air and spectacular views of the Swiss Alps and valley below. This feeling of space and plenitude continues in the sumptuous 300-square-metre spa. With a heated pool, sauna, jacuzzi and hammam, this special setting dedicated to well-being is ideal for relaxing after a day of skiing or hiking. To cap the experience, discover Aïda Hotel & Spa's restaurant "Le Partage", where the chef elevates local flavours to new heights.

Hostellerie Du Pas de L'Ours

Restaurant and hotel in the mountains. Skiing on the world-renowned slopes of Crans-Montana is not the only pleasure in store for you at this charming chalet. The wood façades have been well-preserved as well as the interior stone walls. With views of the snow-covered mountain peaks, the suites have open fireplaces and jacuzzis that serve as lovely compliments to the relaxing therapies offered by L'Alpage Spa. At the hotel's gourmet restaurant, chef Franck Reynaud invites you to taste his creations in which "emotion" serves as a guiding force, while those desiring hearty cuisine will find what they seek at Bistrot des Ours. And no visit would be complete without admiring the painting of Felix, the hotel's former resident donkey.

4 VERBIER — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

Le Chalet d'Adrien

Hotel and restaurant in the mountains. In a postcard setting with unbelievable views of snowy peaks, Le Chalet d'Adrien seems to cling to the mountain. It overlooks Verbier, one of Switzerland's most charming mountain resorts. An unrivalled ski paradise in winter, its mountain pastures host magnificent hiking trails in summer. Inside the chalet, the matching wood panelling and fabrics, antique furniture, books and unassumingly scattered artwork, create a charming and cosy setting from which you can enjoy the untamed beauty of the pristine landscape. The pool has a view of the mountains, and Spa by Clarins offers many pampering treatments. The restaurants feature the culinary flavours of nearby Italy, mingled with Valais ingredients and wines.

Hôtel Victoria

Hotel and restaurant in a village. For Toni and Barbara Mittermair, “guests don’t come to the hotel, they come to our home”. This home is beautifully located on the banks of Lake Geneva, with snowy mountain peaks behind. It is a pleasure to sip aperitifs on the terrace, whilst watching the beautiful sunset. The inspired owners have succeeded in preserving the intimate and welcoming atmosphere of a family hotel at the Victoria. In the hotel’s restaurant, the chef and his team create simple cuisine inspired by the south of France, such as the rack of Sisteron lamb with herbs accompanied by straw potatoes and ratatouille nicoise.
